

INAUGURAL CASB Cryo-EM Symposium

EVENT DETAILS

Click for complete information for Event, including full schedule, hotel, and parking.

The University of Cincinnati is celebrating the opening of the Cryo-EM Center in association with the Center for Advanced Structural Biology (CASB). Join us for a FREE all-day Symposium to commemorate the installation of two Cryo-EM microscopes – Talos L120c and Glacios, and the opening of the Center.

Meals and Parking will be provided.

Join us following the Symposium for a Grand Opening, Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, Facility Tour, and Poster Session. Activities will commence at 4:45P in the Cardiovascular Research Center Atrium.
